GOLDEN TRIANGLE

The triangle made up by Lincoln, Speer, and Colfax and the museums along 13th Avenue, directly south of downtown Denver. This culturally stimulating neighborhood is home to eight of Denver's museums. In the past decade, the cultural icons including the Denver Art Museum and the Denver Public Library, have undergone enormous transformations, making this area the hot spot for art lovers, culture buffs and those who want to be right in the thick of the city's action.

CAPITOL HILL

The Capitol Hill neighborhood is named after the Colorado State Capitol, which indeed sits atop a hill. Capitol Hill stretches from Broadway to Downing Street. The neighborhood is bounded by Colfax Avenue to the north and 8th Avenue to the south.

RiNO (River North)

RiNo is bounded by I-70 to the North, I-25 to the West, Park Avenue West to the South, and Lawrence to the East. While retaining its industrial roots, the RiNo neighborhood is now fertile ground for arts and artists. The River North Art District is dedicated to promoting and supporting the people and businesses that reside in the area.

FIVE POINTS

About one mile northeast of downtown, bordered by Park Avenue, Downing Street, Stout Street and Tremont Place. One of Denver's oldest nieghborhoods, referred to the area as the "Harlem of the West" for its jazz history, where many of the greats, including Billie Holiday, Duke Ellington, Miles Davis, and more played at clubs like Rossonian and the Rainbow Room.

HIGHLANDS

Highlands Square at 32nd and Lowell is a charming neighborhood of quaint boutiques and restaurants, situated among bungalow-style houses. Here, you'll find shops offering anything from books and gifts to fine lingerie and contemporary fashions.

LoHi (Lower Highlands)

Peddling rooftop bars, festivals like the LoHi Music Festival, street fairs, and the third highest number of coffee shops per capita in our round up. Enjoy a handful of galleries in the Navajo Street Art District, Denver's officially designated arts district.

“Small businesses and local businesses are still the backbone of our economy!”

THERE ARE MANY REASONS TO SUPPORT
LOCAL, INDEPENDENT BUSINESSES
IN YOUR COMMUNITY
ENCOURAGE LOCAL PROSPERITY !

DOING THE MATH

The math for buying close to home is compelling—for every $100 spent at a locally-owned business, $73 remains in the local economy, and $27 leaves. Compare that to the same $100 spent at a non-locally owned business, where $43 remains in the local economy and $57 leaves.

DID YOU KNOW?

When you shop with local merchants, more of your money stays close to home; supporting parks, recreation centers, libraries and other things that make this community a great place to live.
